

BOOTH 089

SCOPE

NEW YORK 2017

MARCH 02 - MARCH 05

"Uno, Nessuno e Centomila"

"One, No One and One Hundred Thousand."

The perceptive faculties, outside of the normal rules, seem to expand and see "through the others' eyes."

*The observer is immediately immersed in a game of false projections.
The spiral of reasoning gives way to a liberating irrationalism, while wandering around in brain labyrinths that might open up to new prospects.*

*Just as soon as it appears, the unity of the self disintegrates into diverse stratifications:
"One, No One and One Hundred Thousand."*
